MEDICINAL.

CRASH!!

Goes the crockery and the waitress will probably be called clumsy and careless. Her plea of sudden dizziness is not allowed. "What right has she to be dizzy?" they ask. Women who are suffering from diseases peculiarly feminine are liable to sudden dizziness and faintness, and it is only by curing the womanly diseases to which they are subject that dizziness and other ills can be entirely relieved.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It cures irregularity, dries disagreeable, weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. When these conditions are cured, backache, headache, dizziness, etc., are also cured.

It suffered for twelve years with female trouble. Mrs. Milton Offens of Adair, Adair Co., Iowa, "which brought on other diseases—heart trouble, Bright's disease, and at times would be nearly paralyzed. Had neuralgia of stomach. I saw freely of my medicine (nine bottles in all, five of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, four of Golden Medical Discovery, and two of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills) and have cured me. I can work with comfort now, but before I would be tired all the time and have a dizzy headache, and say nerves would be all unstrung so I could not sleep. Now I can sleep and do a day's work, something I had not done for over eleven years before."

"Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most desirable laxative for delicate women.

TOBACCO AND CIGARS.

Brands May Come

and brands may go but the famous old

goes on forever. Years ago, when we first put this brand upon the market, we determined there should be one firm which would make an honest effort to keep its product up to a certain standard, and the popularity of our "Plantation" brand is evidence that we have succeeded. The stock is of the same quality, and the blend exact. The same care is exercised in the manufacture of our entire output.

Every Plantation cigar is stamped with the firm name of

PICKED UP SMALL TREASURE.

Mr. Sam Wiley last Saturday, while hunting on the farm he rents on the Blue Ridge Mountains, near Mt. Airy, in this country, picked up an old rotten piece of oil cloth, which hid a small-sized treasure. Neatly folded in this piece of oil cloth were three United States treasury notes, aggregating $200—one $100 note and two $50 notes. The notes are dated back in the '60s, and are payable three years after date, compound semi-annually interest. The $100 note, which has upon it the picture of Washington delivering his address to the Senate, bears the date of May 15, 1865, and number 65,893 B. On the back side estimates of interest and principal the note amounts to at end of certain periods of time up to three years—$119.40 being given as the amount of interest and principal at the end of three years. The other notes are dated December 15, 1864, and October 15, 1864, and numbered 102,259 and 186,171 A. They bear compound semi-annual interest and are payable three years after date, each being worth at the end of that time $29.70. The notes were taken to the bank of Clarke county by Mr. Wiley and were sent to the bank's Baltimore correspondent for collection. The edges of the notes were rotted away and evidenced that they had been lying in the grass and leaves on the mountain for many years. It is possible that some soldier dropped them during the war.

If interest is allowed Mr. Wiley, by the government on these notes for thirty-seven years he will have a moderate fortune, as it is estimated that they would be worth then something like $1,800. With compound interest for three years their value is $238.50. A special act of Congress will be necessary to allow interest after three years.—[Clarke Courier.]

correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says: "Representative Claude Kitchin, of North Carolina, threw a bombshell into the republican camp by introduction of a joint resolution, which would, if passed, effectually disavow all the propositions to reduce the representation of any of the States on account of the disfranchisement of the negro, and would render unnecessary any further deliberation regarding suffrage by the constitutional convention in Virginia. Mr. Kitchin's joint resolution, which provides for the repeal of the Fifteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States. He said, said a republican yesterday, is to completely undo the work of the republican party in conferring the right to vote on the negro anywhere in the United States. This republican expression is correct, and there are many republicans, both in and out of Congress, who most earnestly wish that Mr. Kitchin's joint resolution might become law. The text of the Fifteenth amendment is that 'the right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.' Mr. Kitchin's joint resolution may not now be taken seriously but it is said here, in discussions of the matter, that its passage would meet the approval of a great majority of the white citizens of the United States, north as well as south.

Miss STOCKDELL'S INDIAN WORK.—Bishop Funston, formerly of Virginia, but now of Boise, Idaho, is in urgent need of funds to carry on his work among the Indians. The sum of $500 is needed to complete and equip Mrs. Helen G. Stockdell's log house at the Leabli Indian agency, Idaho.

Miss Stockdell formerly lived here, and was a general favorite in social and musical circles. She went to Idaho as a missionary about eighteen months ago.

Bishop Funston also needs $700 to support a Virginia Seminary man in a large mining district. Funds are needed for various works, $1,000 towards building a mission rectory and two little mission churches; $900 to support seven girls at St. Margaret's School; $5,000 for extension and enlargement of the school work and $5,000 to complete two important churches.—[Richmond News.]

[Miss Stockdell is well known in this city where she formerly lived.]

How to Cure Croup.

When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. This should be borne in mind and a bottle of the Cough Remedy kept at hand ready for instant use as soon as these symptoms appear. For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.
